Final Week of Classes Spring 2017 Mon. May 15 - Fri. May 19

Individual student conflicts should be worked out with instructors as soon as possible.

Lab portions of courses that include labs do not have scheduled exams.

This schedule is based on the first day and time that your class met each week during the semester.

Please note any exam slot exceptions, classroom exceptions, and combined sections on page two.

Unless an exception is noted, all sessions are held in the same classroom your class was held in during the semester.

If the first day that your class meets each week is on...
